Article 1

Subject-Matter

The Dormitory Regulations (hereinafter referred to as "the DR"), in accordance with generally binding legal regulations and the Statute of the Comenius University Bratislava (hereinafter referred to as "CU") regulate the rights and obligations of the accommodated students of CU, the employees of CU and other persons (hereinafter referred to as "the Accommodated Person") in the Student House Mlyny CU (hereinafter referred to as "the SH") to whom CU provides temporary accommodation in the SH (hereinafter referred to as "the Accommodation Provider").

Article 2

Accommodation

- 1) Students' accommodation shall be decided by the respective faculties within the allocated accommodation capacities approved by the accommodation committee.
- 2) The agenda related to the accommodation of students in the SH is carried out and records are kept by the Study Department of the CU faculty (faculty officer) and the Accommodation Department of the SH.
- 3) The SH reserves the right to refuse accommodation for a student for the new academic year who has been in the past imposed by a valid offence measure - withdrawal from the Accommodation Contract, or who has not paid the accommodation price and contractual penalties for previous periods of accommodation in the SH, even if the Faculty of the CU allocates him/her accommodation.
- 4) If the person interested in accommodation does not conclude the Accommodation Contract by the deadline set by the SH, he/she loses the right to the allocated accommodation (bed) and the Director of the Section for SH (hereinafter referred to as "the SH Director") shall decide on its occupancy based on valid internal regulations of the CU.
- 5) For the purpose of entry of the Accommodated Persons to the accommodation part, the entry card is used - depending on the type of the Accommodated Person, it is the accommodation card, ISIC, employee card or other active card (hereinafter referred to as "the entry card").
- 6) During the months of July and August, the Accommodation Provider provides commercial accommodation primarily to the students of the CU. If the accommodation capacity of the SH allows it, the Accommodation Provider can also provide commercial accommodation to other persons.

Article 3

Conditions for providing accommodation to other persons

During the academic year, students of other forms of study than full-time, CU employees and CU guests, or guests from any other organisations can also be accommodated in the SH, on the condition that the student accommodation is not limited or disturbed. The decision on granting accommodation in the SH to other persons is made by the SH Director.

Rights of the SH Accommodated Persons

- 1) The Accommodated Person has the right to a bed with accessories in the assigned room. The accessories include a quilt and a pillow with the possibility of renting bed linen. The Accommodated Person has the right to a regular change of bed linen once every 14 days. At the same time, the Accommodated Person has the right to use the common areas of the SH and sports fields of the SH.
- 2) The Accommodated Person has the right to use the inventory that is part of the room. The - inventory of the room is included in the inventory list located in each room and is non-transferable. By signing the Accommodation Contract, the Accommodated Person takes over the room inventory. The loss of the inventory list is sanctioned in the sense of the valid price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.

- 3) The Accommodated Person has the right to peaceful enjoyment of the bed and room allocated to him/her, in particular to rest, study and sleep. The Accommodation Provider is not responsible for the actions of third parties in the SH premises. At any time, the Accommodated Person has the right to report any violation of the DR that he/she observes in the SH (e.g. any activity that objectively prevents him/her from peacefully using the bed and the assigned room, etc.) in person or by phone at the relevant porter's lodge to the emergency number (number of the security and order section's emergency service of the SH listed on the SH's website (www.mlyny.uniba.sk)). Exceptions to the right to peaceful use of the bed and assigned room are activities necessary for the proper operation of the SH, especially operational activities, repairs or renovations, which will be properly and continuously announced via the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk or by written notification.
  - 4) The Accommodated Person has the right to use the study rooms located in individual blocks of the SH for the purpose of studying. Study rooms are accessible to all Accommodated Persons at any time. The current list of study rooms is published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.
  - 5) The Accommodated Person has the right to use the kitchenettes located in the SH premises. Persons using the kitchenettes are directly responsible for maintaining cleanliness and for thoroughly turning off the appliances at the end of their activity.
  - 6) The Accommodated Person has the right to immediate maintenance and repairs of reported failures in the accommodation area within the technical, economic and operational capabilities of the SH. Exceptions to this rule are failures that require a more extensive and time-consuming repair. Failures must be reported to the email address mlyny.udrzba@uniba.sk.
  - 7) The Accommodated Person has the right to maintenance and adequate keeping of cleanliness of the common areas of the SH outside the allocated areas in the accommodation units. The Accommodated Person has the right to report violation of this right by any other Accommodated Person to the e-mail address mlyny.priestupky@uniba.sk.
  - 8) The Accommodated Person has the right to receive visitors in his/her room in accordance with Art. 13 of these DR. An exception to this right is a ban on visits, which can be declared by the SH Director for hygienic, epidemic, emergency or other serious reasons.
  - 9) The Accommodated Person has the right to change accommodation:
    - a) free of charge – if his/her room ceases to be suitable for accommodation (the responsible SH employee has the right to qualify a room as unsuitable for accommodation),
    - b) for a fee - within the specified period and under the conditions set by the Accommodation Provider, if he/she voluntarily requests the allocation of another room or the exchange of a room with another Accommodated Person and pays the handling fee according to the valid price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk, while the fee is paid by both Accommodated Persons.
  - 10) The Accommodated Person has the right to submit comments, suggestions or proposals regarding the issue of dormitory life, which he/she can address to the e-mail addresses of the SH staff published on the website www.mlyny.uniba.sk. The Accommodation Provider is not obliged to send a reply to any comments, suggestions and proposals regarding the issue of dormitory life, which are not sent from the email address listed in the header of the Accommodation Contract or the University email.

Article 5 Obligations of the SH Accommodated Persons

- 1) The Accommodated Person is obliged to comply with the laws of the Slovak Republic, other generally binding regulations, the Accommodation Contract, these DR, the internal regulations of the CU and the internal regulations of the SH. The Accommodated Person is obliged to follow the instructions of the SH Director, SH Deputy Directors, senior employees of the SH, as well as other authorised employees of the SH.
- 2) The Accommodated Provider is obliged to review the introductory fire protection, safety and health protection information intended for the Accommodated Persons and adhere to these instructions over the duration of accommodation. These regulations are published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.
- 3) The Accommodated Person is obliged to familiarise him/herself with the contents of the evacuation plan and fire evacuation guidelines of the SH, which are placed in the SH buildings on each floor in visible places and on the Accommodation Provider's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.
- 4) The Accommodated Person is obliged to immediately report any damage to the fire-fighting equipment to the relevant SH porter's lodge.
- 5) The Accommodated Person is obliged to use his/her valid entry card upon request of an employee of the Section for the SH to enter the accommodation part of the SH. The Accommodated Person must also use the entry card (ISIC) to enter through the turnstiles. The Accommodated Person shall comply with the conditions for receiving visitors as set out in Article 13 of these DR.
- 6) The Accommodated Person shall maintain hygiene, order and cleanliness in the room or accommodation unit, in the common facilities and areas, as well as in the entire SH premises. As part of the self-cleaning system, the Accommodated Person is obliged to:
  - daily: take out the trash, keep the room, accommodation unit and balcony clean, clean the common sanitary facilities (sinks, showers and toilets), the stove and the area near the stove
  - once a week: thoroughly clean the whole room, sweep, wipe the dust in the room, wash the floor in the room (also under the tables and beds), wash the floor in the toilet, bathroom and in the hall
  - monthly: clean the refrigerator and the space under the refrigerator
  - once every 3 months: defrost the freezer, if it is part of the refrigerator.
- 7) The Accommodated Person is obliged to protect the mattress, quilt and pillow from contamination by stretched bed linen and to change it regularly. In case of non-use of the quilt and pillow, the Accommodated Person is obliged to protect them from pollution by placing them in a plastic bag. In case of damage or excessive staining of the mattress, quilt, pillow or bed linen, the Accommodated Person is obliged to pay the amount for their replacement in full according to the price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.
- 8) The Accommodated Person is obliged to prepare the room according to the instructions of the responsible SH staff before the reported disinsection and deratization.
- 9) The Accommodated Person is obliged to make the assigned room accessible to the SH staff at any time for the purpose of maintenance, repairs, inventory control, technical inspections, compliance with hygiene regulations and proper use of the accommodation area within the meaning of the Accommodation Contract and the DR, as well as in other emergency situations (e.g. disinsection, painting, etc.). Access to the Accommodated Persons' rooms shall be carried out by authorised staff of the SH.
- 10) The Accommodated Person is obliged to save water and electricity, to lock all relevant entrance doors when leaving the room, turn off all electrical appliances, turn off the water, turn off the lights, close the windows and balcony doors.

- 11) During his/her stay in the room, when he/she is free from direct supervision and disposition of his/her belongings (for example, during sleep, during his/her stay in sanitary facilities), the Accommodated Person is obliged to adequately secure the room by closing windows, balcony doors and locking all relevant entrance doors. When leaving the accommodation area, to secure it against theft of personal belongings of the Accommodated Persons by closing and locking the door, do not lend the keys to another person and do not leave them in freely accessible places.
- 12) The Accommodated Person is obliged to behave in such a way as not to damage the reputation, civil and human dignity of the other Accommodated Persons, visitors and employees of the SH and the reputation of the CU, to observe the rules of coexistence and not to offend others by his/her behaviour.
- 13) The Accommodated Person is obliged to immediately report the loss or theft of the SH entry card to the SH Accommodation Department in order to prevent its misuse in the accommodation area, catering establishments or other places where this card serves as a personal identifier. Immediately after the issuance of the temporary SH entry card, the Accommodated Person is obliged to arrange his/her own new entry card and subsequently return the temporary entry card lent by the SH to the Accommodation Department.
- 14) The Accommodated Person is obliged to protect the keys to the accommodation area from theft and immediately report their loss to the Accommodation Department. In the event of loss or theft of room keys, the Accommodated Person shall pay a fine, regardless of fault, in the amount set out in the damage price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk, or in the Accommodation Contract.
- 15) The Accommodated Person shall, if circumstances so require, undergo health and hygiene measures.
- 16) The Accommodated Person is obliged to compensate for damage caused or the contractual penalty in full, in the manner and within the time-limit specified by SH.
- 17) The Accommodated Person is obliged to comply with the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Integrated Information and Communication System (IICS) of the CU and other internal regulations of the CU governing the use of information and communication technologies.
- 18) Access to the SH's computer network is granted to each Accommodated Person, and the Accommodated Person may use the SH's computer network only for the duration of his/her stay in the SH.
- 19) Violation of the CU internal regulations governing the use of information and communication technologies may result in the temporary or total cancellation of the connection provided to the Accommodated Person in the SH.
- 20) The Accommodated Person's obligation upon checking in:
  - present his/her ID card (for foreigners a valid passport; in case of visa requirements with a valid visa or residence permit), possibly also an ISIC card;
  - indicate true data in the Accommodation Contract;
  - familiarise him/herself with the initial briefing of the Accommodated Persons on fire protection, safety and health protection;
  - submit the signed Accommodation Contract;
  - pay the accommodation price and the security deposit within the deadline and in the manner specified in the Accommodation Contract;
  - check-in exclusively for the assigned room.
- 21) The Accommodated Person is obliged to follow the instructions of the Accommodation Department staff.
- 22) The Accommodated Person is obliged to check in only for the room assigned to him/her (the only exception is changing of accommodation according to Article 4, point 9 of these DR).

- 23) All the Accommodated Persons are obliged to check the inventory according to the inventory list found in the room within two calendar days after taking over the accommodation area. Missing inventory, technical or hygienic deficiencies must be reported by the Accommodated Person to the email address mlyny.hospodarske@uniba.sk and technical deficiencies to mlyny.udrzba@uniba.sk within the same time-limit as stated in the previous sentence. For non-compliance with this obligation, SH is authorised to impose a contractual penalty on the Accommodated Person within the meaning of Article 11 of these DR.
- 24) The Accommodated Person is obliged to immediately report any technical failures, malfunctions and damages in the accommodation area via email to the email address mlyny.udrzba@uniba.sk. Damages in the accommodation units - rooms caused intentionally or negligently are covered by the Accommodated Persons in full according to the price list of damages published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk, or according to the actual costs.
- 25) In case of occurrence of parasitic insects in the room (bed bugs, fleas, etc.), the Accommodated Person is obliged to immediately report this fact to the staff of the Operations Department of the SH or to the staff of the Accommodation Department of the SH. SH will then take measures necessary to eradicate the parasite and follow the instructions of the designated SH employee.
- 26) The Accommodated Person's obligations upon the accommodation termination:
- follow the instructions of all staff of the Section for SH involved in the process of checking out according to the Organisational Regulations of the Rector's Office of CU and the obligations of the Accommodated Person during checking out published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk;
  - hand over the accommodation area to the Accommodation Provider no later than 11:00 a.m. on the last day of accommodation, unless agreed otherwise with the SH Accommodation Department;
  - hand over the room, balcony and common areas of the accommodation unit properly cleaned and tidied in the condition in which the Accommodated Person took them over, taking into account normal wear and tear;
  - hand over the room with all the inventory included in the inventory list. Missing inventory, as well as other damages caused by the Accommodated Person is obliged to compensate for upon checking out in accordance with the current price list of damages published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk. In case of damages that are not included in the price list of damages published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk, the Accommodated Person is obliged to pay the actual cost of repairing the damage or the actual cost of acquiring the inventory,
  - personally return borrowed bed linen, keys to the accommodation area, or any other borrowed items to the administration of the SH,
  - pay any arrears for accommodation, contractual penalties and any damage caused;
  - deregister with the SH Accommodation Department;
  - in exceptional cases, the student may be checked out by another person based on a power of attorney, and that person is fully responsible for the proper handover and cleaning of the accommodation area and for payment of any claims of the person being checked out;
  - at the end of accommodation, the Accommodated Person is responsible for removing all belongings and personal property from the accommodation area before handing it over to the Accommodation Provider. In the event that the Accommodated Person fails to check out in accordance with the terms of the contract, he/she shall be liable to pay the Accommodation Provider a contractual penalty in the amount specified in the Accommodation Contract. If he/she fails to check out even after a notice (the notice may be made in person by verbal agreement with an employee of the SH Accommodation Department, or by telephone or e-mail), he/she shall be evicted from the accommodation areas. At the same time, the Accommodated Person is obliged to pay the administrative fee for eviction to the SH Accommodation Department according to the fee price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk. All items subject to eviction will be stored for a period of 2 months from the date of eviction for a monthly fee as per the fee price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk. During this period, the evicted Accommodated Person shall be notified twice in writing by registered mail to the Accommodated Person's permanent address or by email to pick up his/her belongings and to properly settle his/her receivables. At the end of this time-limit, the SH reserves the right to dispose of all stored belongings.

- 27) The Accommodated Person is obliged to prevent excessive wear and tear, deterioration, dysfunction or damage to the entrusted accommodation area and inventory through his/her own fault or through the fault of another person.
- 28) The Accommodated Person is obliged to familiarise himself/herself and comply with the generally binding legal regulations and the internal regulations of the CU and the Accommodation Provider governing health, safety, hygiene and epidemic measures, in particular those relating to the occurrence and spread of infectious diseases, and with any subsequent changes thereto.
- 29) The Accommodated Person is obliged to follow the instructions for the use of study rooms published on the Accommodation Provider's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.

Article 6 Restrictions

- 1) The Accommodated Person may not allow non-Accommodated Persons to enter the SH or attempt illegal entry of a non-Accommodated Person into the SH through the entrance area of the porter's lodge or checkpoints without meeting the conditions for receiving visitors set by the SH Director in accordance with Art. 13 of these DR.

Rights of Accommodation Provider

- 1) The Accommodation Provider has the right to enter the premises reserved for accommodation at any time, even without the Accommodated Person's knowledge, in cases of threat to life or health, if there is a threat of damage to property, if it is to avert a serious threat to public order, if there is a reasonable suspicion that persons who are not the Accommodated Persons are staying in the premises reserved for accommodation, or due to other violations of the provisions of the DR, during the elimination of technical faults and accidents.
- 2) The Accommodation Provider has the right to evict the Accommodated Person or to store his/her belongings in the area designated for this purpose at the Accommodated Person's expense if the Accommodated Person does not hand over the accommodation area (keys, bed, room and areas used by him/her during accommodation, e.g. kitchenette, sanitary facilities) on the day of the accommodation termination.

- 3) The Accommodation Provider has the right to check compliance with hygiene and fire safety regulations and the proper use of the accommodation area in the presence or absence of the Accommodated Persons. The detected deficiencies and violations of the Accommodated Persons' obligations shall be notified to the Accommodated Persons after the inspection. The inspecting SH employee has the right to make photo documentation of the detected deficiencies. In the event of serious deficiencies being detected, the Accommodated Persons will be subject to offence measures as defined in these DR.
- 4) The SH staff member has the right to withhold the Accommodated Person's entry card if he/she finds or has reason to suspect that the Accommodated Person is violating these DR.
- 5) The SH Director is authorised to declare a ban on visits for sanitary, epidemic, emergency, or other serious reasons.
- 6) The Director reserves the right to provide the Accommodated Person with a bed in a room other than the one assigned to him/her, or to move the Accommodated Person to another room for health, safety, hygiene, epidemic, renovation, operational or other serious reasons, or for the purpose of more efficient use of the accommodation capacity.

Article 8

Accommodation Provider's obligations

- 1) The Accommodation Provider is obliged to hand over the premises reserved for accommodation to the Accommodated Person in a condition suitable for proper use.
- 2) The Accommodation Provider shall ensure the proper and undisturbed exercise of the Accommodation Person's rights associated with accommodation under the conditions set out in the DR and the Accommodation Contract.
- 3) The Accommodation Provider is obliged to notify the Accommodated Persons in advance about works on the SH facilities and in the SH premises that will restrict the proper use of the SH premises or the undisturbed exercise of the rights associated with accommodation under the conditions set out in these DR and in the Accommodation Contract.
- 4) If the Accommodated Person's keys to the accommodation area are lost or stolen, the Accommodation Provider is obliged to arrange the replacement of the key insert in the respective room upon payment of a fee in accordance with the valid price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.
- 5) Upon request of the Accommodated Person, the Accommodation Provider shall ensure, according to its operational capabilities and for a fee, opening of the door for the Accommodated Person to the premises reserved for accommodation.

Article 9

Method and maturity of payment of the accommodation price and security deposit

- 1) The Accommodated Person agrees to pay the accommodation price and the security deposit in accordance with the deadlines set out in accordance with the Accommodation Contract. The accommodation price is set per bed per calendar month of accommodation, regardless of the actual number of days of accommodation in a given calendar month.
- 2) The method of payment is defined in the Accommodation Contract.
- 3) The Accommodated Person is obliged (at the Accommodation Provider's request) to immediately show the accommodation price proof of payment.

Article 10 Offence measures

- 1) A breach of a contractual obligation (hereinafter referred to as an "offence") is classified as a culpable violation of generally binding legal regulations, the internal regulations of the CU and SH, the Accommodation Contract or these DR. An offence committed by the Accommodated Person's visitor is always also the responsibility of the accommodated (visited) person.
- 2) Offences of the Accommodated Persons as set out in these DR may result in the imposition of an offence measure. The degree of seriousness of each type of offence or infringement and the subsequent imposition of an offence measure shall be determined individually, according to seriousness, danger, extent or consequences of the infringement in accordance with Article 11 of these DR.
- 3) The offence measures referred to in paragraph 6(a) and (b) of this Article of the DR shall be imposed by a member of staff authorised by the SH Director.
- 4) The offence measure referred to in paragraph 6(c) of these DR shall be imposed by the SH Director. In the case of an offence measure imposed by the Director, it is not possible to submit a request for a review of the imposed offence measure.
- 5) When imposing an offence measure, the sequence of the offence measure under paragraphs 6(a) to 6(c) of this Article of the DR shall not be taken into account, and any of the measures referred to in paragraph 6 of this Article of the DR may be imposed on the Accommodated Person after consideration of the intensity of the violation.
- 6) The offence measures shall be:
  - a) a contractual penalty in accordance with the Accommodation Contract and Article 11 of these DR,
  - b) the last warning prior to withdrawal from the Accommodation Contract,
  - c) withdrawal from the Accommodation Contract associated with the loss of the right to apply for accommodation in all CU accommodation facilities for the duration of the student's studies at the CU or another public or private higher education institution.
- 7) The provisions of these DR are without prejudice to the right of the CU faculties to impose measures in its disciplinary proceedings.
- 8) Prior to the imposition of an offence measure, the Accommodated Person has the right to be heard on the offence.
- 9) The offence measure must be imposed in writing and delivered to the Accommodated Person in the manner specified in Article 14(7) of the DR.
- 10) The Accommodated Person on whom an offence measure was imposed pursuant to paragraph 6 (a) and (b) of this Article of the DR has the right to request in writing a review of the offence measure imposed within 8 calendar days of the date of its receipt. The request for a review of an imposed offence measure shall be submitted to the SH Director, and the request for a review of an imposed offence measure shall not have suspensive effect.
- 11) The SH Director, as an appeal body, shall consider the request for a review of the imposed offence measure and, if he/she finds that it is contrary to the law, an internal regulation of the CU, the Accommodation Contract or the DR, he/she shall amend or cancel the decision; otherwise, he/she shall reject the request and confirm the imposition of the offence measure. The SH Director may, in justified cases, modify or mitigate the imposed offence measure (in particular the amount of the imposed contractual penalty). The SH Director shall decide on the request for a review of the imposed offence measure at the latest within 30 days of receipt of the request for a review of the decision.

Article 11
Types of offences and contractual penalties

- 1) In the event of a breach of the Accommodated Person's obligations under these DR and the Accommodation Contract, the Accommodated Person is obliged to pay contractual penalties for each individual breach of the obligations under these DR and the Accommodation Contract (i.e. the contractual penalties are cumulative), in the amounts set out in this Article of the DR and the Accommodation Contract. The application of the Accommodation Provider's claim for payment of contractual penalties shall be without prejudice to the Accommodation Provider's right to compensation for damage caused by the Accommodated Person to the SH's property in accordance with the current damage price list published on the SH's website www.mlyny.uniba.sk.   - c) Visitors who are obviously under the influence of alcohol, narcotic or psychotropic substances, or who behave aggressively and do not observe the principles of decent behaviour will not be allowed to enter the SH premises.

- d) Upon arrival to the SH building, the visitor is required to announce his/her arrival to the porter's lodge staff member or at the Accommodation Department during office hours, present his/her valid ID card or valid ISIC for identification and registration.
  - e) The Accommodated Person is responsible for the visitor's compliance with the DR throughout the visit.
  - f) At the end of the visit, the visitor is obliged to check out, accompanied by the Accommodated Person who received the visit. No stranger shall be allowed in the SH premises after 11:59 p.m., except as provided in paragraph 2 of this Article.
- 2) Short-term accommodation of visitors in student rooms - persons not accommodated in the SH
 Students accommodated in the SH may, under the conditions set out by the SH Director, provide short-term accommodation for a maximum of 5 nights on a spare bed in their rooms to students of higher education institutions or to other persons who are not accommodated in the SH or on whom offence measures have not been imposed - withdrawal from the Accommodation Contract in the accommodation facility of the CU. The following conditions must be met for accommodation:
- a) the accommodation of the visitor is subject to the consent of all the roommates present in the room/accommodation unit of the Accommodated Person receiving the visitor and to the fact that accommodation of the other Accommodated Persons in the room/accommodation unit is not disturbed;
  - b) visitors who are obviously under the influence of alcohol, narcotic or psychotropic substances or behave aggressively and do not observe the principles of good behaviour are not entitled to short-term accommodation in the SH;
  - c) the Accommodated Person is responsible for the visitor's compliance with all the provisions of these DR throughout the visit. If the visitor violates these DR (e.g., based on a complaint of the other Accommodated Persons), the Accommodated Person may be subject to an offence measure;
  - d) the Accommodated Person is obliged to pick up the visitor personally at the porter's lodge or to register him/her in advance at the Accommodation Department in the event that the visitor stays overnight, and must not leave the visitor in the SH premises without his/her presence;
  - e) the visitor is obliged to present an identity document (ID / passport) the porter's lodge employee upon arrival;
  - f) when a visitor stays overnight, it is necessary to pay the specified fee per night and person in advance for the entire stay at the Accommodation Department of the SH at the relevant porter's lodge, or retroactively if the visit was handled through the porter's lodge;
  - g) at the end of the visit, the visitor is obliged to check out at the porter's lodge accompanied by the Accommodated Person.
- 3) Short-term accommodation of visitors in staff rooms - persons not accommodated in the SH:
 Persons accommodated in staff rooms may accommodate not only students of higher education institutions, but also other persons for a short time (for a maximum of 5 nights) on a spare bed in their rooms. The amount of the fee for short-term accommodation of other persons is determined by the valid price list published on the SH website www.mlyny.uniba.sk. All other conditions from point 2 of this Article also fully apply to the short-term accommodation of visitors in lecturer and staff rooms.
- 4) Receiving visitors - persons accommodated in the SH in another room:
- a) it is not necessary to register a visitor

- b) receiving visitors is subject to the consent of the all roommates present in the accommodation unit of the Accommodated Person receiving the visitor and to the fact that accommodation of the other Accommodated Persons is not disturbed;
- c) without the consent of the roommates, a student may receive a visitor only if the roommates are not present in the room at the time of the visit.

Article 14
Miscellaneous provisions

- 1) The SH is an academic ground. Law enforcement authorities have the right to enter the SH buildings and premises under the conditions set out in the Higher Education Act and the Statutes of CU. Entry by law enforcement authorities is authorised by the Rector of CU.
- 2) In order to prevent the occurrence and spread of communicable diseases at CU, the Rector of CU is authorised to take extraordinary hygienic measures, including the closure of the SH or its part.
- 3) Political parties and political movements are not allowed to form their organisations, develop or promote their activities in the SH.
- 4) Mass events may be held in the SH premises only with the consent of the SH Director or a person authorised by him/her.
- 5) These DR shall also apply mutatis mutandis to other persons accommodated in the SH and shall be binding on all employees who are in employment or other similar relationships with the SH and CU, as well as foreign persons present in the SH buildings and premises.
- 6) In matters not regulated by these DR, the provisions of generally binding legal regulations, the Statute of CU and other valid internal regulations of CU shall apply.
- 7) All notices or other communications in connection with these DR or the Accommodation Contract (hereinafter also referred to as "documents") shall be in writing unless specified otherwise. Documents must be delivered to the other Party by universal mail carrier or electronic mail (e-mail) or in person. Documents delivered in paper form shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date of receipt by the Party to whom they are addressed. In the event of non-receipt of a document by a Party, the document shall be deemed to have been delivered upon expiry of the time-limit specified by the postal carrier for its receipt. The document shall also be deemed to have been delivered if the Party refuses to accept it. In the case of delivery by electronic mail (e-mail), the electronic mail will be sent to the e-mail address specified in the header of the Accommodation Contract or to the e-mail address assigned to the Accommodated Person by the CU.
